→ a network of the Canadian Council of Churches

LEARN MORE ABOUT THE DAY

Created as a response to the killing of 69 protesters at a peaceful anti-apartheid demonstration in Sharpeville, South Africa in 1960, the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination has been observed around the world every year on March 21 since 1966

TAKE ACTION!

Marking March 21st is an important step in undoing racism in the church, but it is just one step in the journey. Maybe your church has a robust anti-racism strategy, or maybe it hasn't begun the conversation. Feel free to visit the CEARN "Undoing Racism" page for resources to help you in having a broader and deeper conversation in your denomination and/or church.

To engage more deeply, consider:

- Hosting a workshop
- planning a Bible Study
- Gathering for a film viewing and discussion
- Attending an anti-racism event or rally
